
Zella Himes Dies

Former Resident Passes Away in Indianapolis, From Pneumonia

Zella Himes, age 41, a former resident of this city, passed away at the Methodist hospital in Indianapolis Friday afternoon, following a brief illness with pneumonia.

Funeral services will be conducted in Tuxedo Park Baptist church, Indianapolis, Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial will be made in South Mound cemetery, New Castle.

She is survived by the father, J. B. Himes, two brothers, Austin Himes and Paul Himes of this city and one sister, Mrs. Horace Burroughs of Indianapolis, also a half-brother, J. V. Weybright of Decatur, Ill.
